Cow to Cone

The Journey of Del's Ice cream:

Wil-Roc Farms (Kinderhook, NY): At Wil-Roc Farms, our dairy cows are milked. Fresh, high-quality milk is collected with care, ensuring the best foundation for our ice cream.

Del's Farmhouse Creamery (Red Hook, NY): The fresh milk is transported from Kinderhook to Del's Farmhouse Creamery in Red Hook. Here it will be transformed into handcrafted ice cream, using the freshest ingredients. From classic vanilla to seasonal favorites, each batch is crafted with care.

Del's Roadside (Rhinebeck & Kinderhook, NY): Freshly made ice cream is packed and delivered to our Del's Roadside locations, where it's stored in our freezers, ready to serve. Customers visit Del's Roadside in Rhinebeck and Kinderhook, eager to enjoy their favorite flavors, knowing their scoop started just down the road.

From cow to cone, every step of the process is built on quality, freshness, and local craftsmanship—so every bite tells the story of Del's.
